Obituary

Zita Zeigler (also known to friends and family as Shorty, Chug, or Ms. Z) was born on October 3rd, 1968 to Iness Zeigler and Richard S. Zeigler at the Beth Israel Hospital in New York, NY. She was the middle child of her two older sisters, Corine and Dedra and her two younger brothers, Eric and Lawrence. She was called home by the Lord on July 20th, 2014 at the Allen Presbyterian Hospital in New York, NY.

As a child, Zita attended Middle School 144 and Evander Childs High School. She enjoyed playing handball and spades with friends. Very animated in spirit, she would always brighten up a dark moment with a smile because of her one of a kind humor. Always making the best of her situation, she was never afraid to speak her mind and she was the kind of woman to always stand her ground.

After obtaining her High School Equivalency Diploma, Zita enrolled to Monroe College. She began a long work history with different Home Health Care Visiting Nurse Services. During her time working and after, she studied Culinary Arts and Hotel Management. Numerous people would pay for her catering services. Family and friends would love and always favor her cooking.

Zita gave birth to her one and only daughter, Zia Inez Christine Zeigler on June 13th, 1992. She was an independent hard working full-time parent, helping others often because she knew the balance of give and take. She opened her home and heart to others in need and helped them develop a way to sustain themselves in life.

“The Value Of Hard Work” and “Being Happy Is A Right Of Choice”. Zita always did what made her happy. She didn't care what anyone else thought of her and she always felt free to be herself at all times.

As she rests in peace, her legacy lives on through her daughter, Zia; her family and friends and extended family and friends. Remember Her Life, She Lived It To The Fullest, Her Will, Strength and Power.

She is Loved and Forever will be Missed!

Final Disposition

Woodlawn Cemetery & Crematory
Bronx, New York

A woman, Oh yes she is..

A woman, Oh yes she is..

A Safe!..

A Gifted Spirit only God can give...

A woman, Oh yes she is..

A woman, Oh yes she is..

Her Strength... Enormous, Colossal...

She made things happen that no man would think "Z" did...!

A woman, Oh yes she is,

A woman, Oh yes she is,

HONEST is what she is!

A FRIEND, Oh yes she is!

LOVING is what she is!

A MOTHER, Oh yes she is!

And throughout it all she would stand so tall you can remember what she did...

A Woman, Oh yes she is..

She'll provide a smile over everyone's tears

She would want you to celebrate the woman she is!

A Woman, Oh yes she is..

A Woman, Oh yes she is..

- Queenie (RedMoonRising)
