Obituary

On Thursday, July 31, 2014 Florence Moore, completed her earthly journey at Bellevue Hospital in New York City and entered into eternal rest with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Florence was born on March 3, 1922 to the late Howard Fredrick and Virgie Lee Gray in Newport News, Virginia. She was educated in the Newport News Public School system.

Florence lived in New York City for most of her life and worked in a factory for many years. Florence enjoyed caring for her family and friends. She raised her two great nephews, Charles and Ernest Gray. She also had an extended hand in raising all of her nieces and nephews.

Florence was a God loving woman that loved her bible and loved going to church. For those who knew her, will remember her as "Auntie" the little lady that was always on the go, she loved to walk. Her personality was engaging and outgoing, making the time with her memorable and fun.

Florence was proceeded in death by her late husband, Lacey Moore, her parents, Howard and Virgie Gray, brothers, James, Robert, Haword and Charles Gray, Sr., sisters, Marjorie Watson and Virginia Gray, nephew, Charles H. Gray, Jr. and great nephew, Charles Lee Gray.

Florence leaves to cherish her warm memories to: her sister, Mary Gray; god daughter, Leslie Jenkins; and a host of nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness".*

2 Timothy 4:7-8
