Obituary

Georgia Mae “Nig” Williams was born to Mr. Horace Williams, Sr., and Elizabeth “Bigabit” Williams on July 4, 1940 in Pacolet Mills (Spartanburg), South Carolina. She was raised in Spartanburg until 1957, when her mother Elizabeth moved the family to New York City after the passing of her husband, Horace.

Georgia received her degree in Early Childhood Education from Adelphi University. As an early childhood educator, she worked for the Westside Community Alliance Daycare Center teaching children the fundamentals of life, writing their names, tying their shoes, learning to count and saying the alphabets. However, after years of teaching Georgia retired early to raise and care for her son, Centrass Martan who took ill and passed away in June 2007.

While working at the Daycare she met so many wonderful people that turned out to be life long friends who helped to nurture her children over the years.

Georgia loved life, she enjoyed listening to music, singing, shopping and dancing. Her favorite pass time was going to Atlantic City to play the slot machines. But more important she loved her children and granddaughters. She often talked so proudly of them.

After the passing of her son, Centrass, Georgia became sick. Over the years her health worsened and on the morning of Tuesday, September 30, 2014, she was called home to be with her son, Centrass, sister, Evelyn Ruth, mother, Elizabeth and nephew, Marvin. Although we will miss her, Georgia is no longer in pain.

Georgia leaves to mourn: life partner, James C. Martan; her daughter, Vernadette Williams; and son, Darnell (Deborah) Williams; granddaughters, Tamesha S. Williams, Andrea G. Sinclair, Anaiah R. Sinclair and Sydni G. Williams; her siblings, Horace Williams, Jr., Sarah Williams and Earl (Shirley) Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Even Such Is Time

*Even such is time that takes in trust
Our youth, our joys, our all we have,
And pays us but with age and dust,
Who in the dark and silent grave,
When we have wandered all our ways,
Shuts up the story of our days.
But from this earth, this grave, this dust,
My God shall raise me up, I trust.*
