Obituary

Clarence Leroy Chatt, was born in Cottonplant, Arkansas on May 18, 1936 to Lee Arthur Senior and Lily Chatt.

He transitioned from this life into eternity on November 7, 2014 after battling a long term illness.

Clarence attended Cottonplant Public Schools. He was employed at Norfolk Forlift Company and was blessed to retire after twenty-five years of services.

Shortly after his relocating to Norfolk, VA, he met his wife, Luddie. From that union they had two daughters, Pamela Michelle Chatt and Yasmin Chatt.

Clarence enjoyed playing the guitar and harmonica. He was proficient playing various card games, poker, dominoes and pool.

He leaves behind: two daughters, three grandchildren, Asha Jabrielle Stokes, Ahmad Stokes and Adam Stokes. Clarence Chatt also leaves to cherish, ex wife, Luddie Chatt; two brothers, Lee Arthur, Jr. of Cincinnati, Ohio and Johnny B. of Arkansas; one sister, Shirley of Memphis, Tennessee; one brother-in-law, Herbert Dockery and sister-in-law, Jañeatte Dockery of Irvington, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
