Penny Patrice Smith (March 13, 1963 – November 5, 2014) Daughter of the late Annie D. Brown and Elvin Hill (Biological Father) Lee D. Brown Sr. (Step Father).

If we had to sum up Penny's Life? Everyone would say A Heart of Gold. Penny grew up being that person who would never turn her back on anyone. Never questioned anyone's situation, just always went over and beyond for anyone. (Just Like her Mother).

Y

Penny filled a room with Love and her Smile. But when you get on her wrong side – She would say, "I will snap Crackle and Pop". We would always find Penny with someone's child by her side, Cooking Cleaning or just relaxing watching the movies over and over again that she like Pretty Woman and Coming to America, being at the top of her list. If she was not watching movies or TV, you would find her with her Walkman singing the Oldies but Goodies. That's just who Penny is. Laid Back and just Genuine.

Penny you fought this Battle for a little over 1 year and one of your biggest fears was leaving your children and not knowing that they were going to be okay. So we say to you today, You Rest. No more worrying about others. Today it's all about your celebration.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can explain, it is made of deep devotion and sacrifice and pain, it is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may for nothing can destroy it or take that love away...

It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, and it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking... it believes beyond believing when the world around condemns, and it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems ... It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation, and it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation ... a many splendor miracle man cannot understand and another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.
