Obituary

Anthony Clayton Miller was born on November 3, 1949 to the late Virginia and Elsworth Miller in Orange, NJ. He transitioned from this life November 10, 2014 at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark, NJ.

Anthony attended school in Orange and Newark, graduating from West Side High School in 1968. He enlisted in the United States Air Force and received a medical discharge. Vowing to help his family he worked various jobs.

Anthony became a technician for New Jersey Bell, now Verizon, in 1972. There he was a Union Representative. He retired in July of 2010, completing thirty-nine years of service with the company.

Anthony was blessed with his daughter, Ebony, in 1983. In 1988, he was blessed with a son, Anthony. He loved and adored both of his children.

Tony loved driving, horseback riding, gambling, and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Tony married his true love, Regina Blue, on September 30, 2005. They were never separated until his health began to fail. Their motto was, "You and me against the world."

Tony leaves to mourn: his wife, Regina Blue-Miller; children, Ebony and Anthony Miller, Pops to Andre Blue; one sister, Sari Jordan (James); one brother, Dr. Hilton Miller (Lauren); three grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The love of my life is gone away
I'll keep him in my heart every day.
I tried to be the wife
For the man that I'll love for the rest of my life.
I stayed by your side day and night.
To make sure that everything would be alright.
When you didn't have a voice
I spoke for you.
And I was praying to God too.
You fought a good fight.
God had the right
To say, "Well done, come Home."

I love you
Anthony C. Miller
