Obituary

Erma (Faye) Key was born March 7, 1939 in Parmele, North Carolina. She was the oldest of seven children of the late Isabelle (Jenkins) Pitt and John Pitt.

Erma was educated in the town of Parmele, NC. She then relocated to Washington, DC for a brief time before moving to Newark, NJ, which she made her home. While in Newark, she made a living in the healthcare industry at Doctor's Hospital in Newark, NJ. In 1959, she met, and later married, the late David L. Key. In 1981, she continued her career at Irvington General Hospital in Irvington, NJ as a Dietician. She gave twenty-four years of dedicated service to that institution before retiring in 2005. Erma enjoyed cooking, traveling, and spending quality time with her family and friends. She also loved antique collectables and furniture. She was a loving mother, grandmother and friend.

Erma leaves to cherish her memories: two loving children, Lori A. Key of Newark, New Jersey and Kevin L. Key of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; four grandchildren, Karisha Key (Mother) Kim Tillman of Newark, NJ, Latisha Jones (Father) Ralph Jones of Newark, NJ, Khamilah and Derek Jones (Mother) Cassandra Jones of Myrtle Beach, SC; three precious great grandchildren, Izhané Connor, Zyashia Slythe and Cahjae Muhammad; two brothers, Thomas Pitt and William R. Pitt; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Erma was preceded in death by two brothers, John Henry Pitt and Calvin Pitt; and two sisters, Hilda Davis and Johnnie Mae Pitt.

*If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane.
I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.*

*My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you -
No one can ever know.*

*But now I know you want me
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today~
A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.*
