Obituary

Marian Wallace Cornell was born in Savannah, GA to the proud parents of Cyrus and Mary Wallace on February 20, 1945. Marian was the fifth of nine children.

Marian attended Wadleigh Secondary School for Performing and Visual Arts in lower Manhattan. Marian later met and married James Cornell from this union two daughters were born, Kim Wallace and Tammy Cornell.

Marian began her own child care services caring for many of the neighborhood children. Marian also volunteered the services serving food to the elderly in a senior citizen building.

Marian touched many lives because there was nothing within her means that she wouldn't do for anyone. Her door was always open and there was always food on the stove and she was willing to feed everybody. Marian loved listening to Brother Bruce Lee and dancing at the Roseland Ballroom on the weekends.

She leaves to mourn her husband, James Cornell; two daughters, Kim Wallace and Tammy Cornell; three grandchildren Mercedes Cornell, Merayna De La Cruz and Jourdan Rosario; two great grandchildren Jasaeda Torres and Vanity Rivera; two sisters Elizabeth Castillo and Blanch Wallace; one brother, Michael Wallace and sister-in-law, Pam Wallace; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
