Obituary

George A. Turner was born on October 3, 1921 in Henderson, NC to the late Frank Turner and Gertrude Christmas. On Tuesday, November 11, 2014, God called George home to cease his pain.

George received his education in the Henderson School System in North Carolina.

George went to serve his country in 1942 and he received many decorations and ribbons for his service. He was Honorably Discharged on January 22, 1946.

George held various jobs during his lifetime. He retired from Durex but became bored and went back to working.

George met his soul mate, Fay Jackson, and the two entered into Holy Matrimony on August 20, 1972. George raised and helped many being the affectionate, loving and caring person that he was.

George's hobbies included cleaning and fixing watches, being a mechanic, playing solitaire, guitar and watching Westerns. He also enjoyed the company of his close friends.

George was preceded in death by: his wife, Fay; three sisters, Katherine Fields, Minnie Williams and Anna Belle Nixon; and one grandson, Marnell Gifford.

George leaves to cherish his memories: a niece and nephew, David and Zeta Nixon; his niece, Annie Gifford whom he raised as his daughter; his nephew, Colonel David Lee and Kim Jackson; four grandchildren, Seymour, Yolanda and William Gifford, and Sharonda Gifford-Amos and her husband, Tariq Amos; fifteen great grandchildren, three of whom he raised (Al-Tariq, Anas and Aaliyah Amos) that called him Pa Pa; four great-great grandchildren; and a special aunt, Anna Belle Christmas.

They say a family that prays together, stays together. But, are we family? YES! And you will always be. Always remember, it's a Family Tree. If my wife was here you all would have been on two feet. So stand up, grab hands, tell each we are here to meet, whether it's the wrong terms, right terms, we're happy for the family to greet. My wife and I argued but we always spoke, kissed and said we love and appreciate family. No stuffing on my plate. We want you all to get along for God's sake. I love you Uncle George and Aunt Fay.

Love,
Deek
(Shaadiquah Strauss)

To my papa I would like to say how much you changed my life and still today I admire how much you fought to stay. We had times when we laughed and some when we cried, but you never gave up and your hope never died. I promise that you will be missed and that we won't forget you. But, you will be up there with Aunt Fay, so it's OK.

Love,
Aaliyah
(Aaliyah Amos)

~Expressions of Gratitude~

The family of George A. Turner acknowledges with sincere appreciation the many kind deeds and comforting expressions of sympathy extended to them in their time of sorrow. May God continue to bless each of you. Thank you Perry and Roy for your kind actions. A special thanks to Mr. Vander Burgess for constantly extending his helping hand.
