Obituary

Marjorie Parker was born February 1, 1928 to the late Adeline Errington and Naldo Nichols in Newark, New Jersey. Marjorie entered into Eternal Life on November 15, 2014 at Alaris Healthcare Center of Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

Marjorie worked for the Newark Public School System for fifteen years before she retired. She was a longtime member of Greater Abyssinian Baptist Church on Lyons Avenue in Newark, NJ.

Marjorie met and married James Parker, and to this union eight children were born.

Marjorie was predeceased by one son, Gerald Parker.

Marjorie leaves to cherish her precious memories: her seven children, Marjorie Head, Marva Nichols, Ahmad Sadiq, Dolores Chapman, Diane Parker, Fadilah Parker and Anita Roebuck; twenty grandchildren; thirty-five great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To Those Whom I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had so many years
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each has shown
But now it is time I travelled on alone
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart
I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear
Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home!"
