Reflections of Life

Pastor Laurice Taylor entered into the joy of eternal life with the Lord on Wednesday, November 12, 2014 at the age of 72.

Pastor Taylor was the fourth eldest of eight children born to the late Lawrence and Lue Taylor on September 11, 1942 in Halifax County, North Carolina. She was educated through the Pea Hill Public School system in Halifax County.

In 1963, Pastor Taylor re-located to Paterson, New Jersey where she was employed at Spotless Cleaners for many years. She then began her nursing career at Lincoln Park Nursing Home Lincoln Park, NJ. While employed at Lincoln Park, she continued her education and received her certification as an EKG Technician. Pastor Taylor then embarked on her new career at Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation in Saddle Brook, NJ from which she later retired.

Pastor Taylor had a loving and humble heart of gold. She was a strong, powerful and outstanding woman, mother and Pastor who loved the Lord. Her Christian journey began as a youth at the Righteous Grove Baptist Church in Enfield, NC where she was a faithful Usher. After establishing herself in Paterson, NJ, Pastor Taylor attended the Community Baptist Church of Love for many years. She later became a member of the Paterson Evangelistic Center under the guidance of Apostle Willie S. Darden, where Christ entered her life. Pastor Taylor later joined the Light of Hope Church where she became an evangelist. She continued her evangelistic endeavors at Mount Sinai Church in the Bronx, NY under the leadership of the late Pastor Dorothy M. Ross. Pastor Taylor's most fruitful accomplishment came on June 11, 2006 when she became pastor of the Mount Sinai Church, Inc. Bronx, NY

Pastor Laurice Taylor was predeceased by four brothers, Lawrence Taylor, Jr., George Earl Taylor, Charles Taylor and Elder Sidney Taylor.

Pastor Taylor leaves to cherish precious and wonderful memories: one son, Barlow S. Taylor (Angie) of West Orange, NJ; one daughter, Adrian Vanessa Norman of Clifton, NJ; two brothers, Deacon McArthur Taylor (Deborah) of Petersburg, VA and Jimmy Taylor (Joyce) of Willingboro, NJ; one sister, Sally Whitaker (Chris) of Roosevelt Long Island, NY; sisters-in-law, Lula Taylor of Brooklyn, NY and Marjorie Taylor of Willingboro, NJ; grandchildren, Kristin A. Norman, Duval N. Taylor and Sha'Dunay Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Pastor Taylor dedicated herself to studying the Bible. She would spend hours every morning and evening memorizing scriptures, reading the word of God thoroughly and praying. This does not fully illustrate the number of lives she touched with her love, her laughter and above all, her abiding faith.

Lovingly,
The Family

You have shown us how to give of ourselves

You have shown us leadership

You have taught us to be strong

You have taught us the importance of the family

You have demonstrated unconditional love

You have demonstrated a sensitivity to people's needs

You have handed down to us the important values in life

You have handed down to us the idea of achieving one's goals

You have set an example, throughout your life of what a mother and woman should be like

We're so proud of you and we love you forever.

Pastor Taylor's Thoughts

Let us not labour in vain
Let us build our house on the Solid Rock
Let us work while it is day, because
When night falls, we cannot work

I may not be what you want me to be.
I am a child of God.

I may be bruised sometimes, but
I am still standing on the Solid Rock.
I may be the least of all,
But I am. That I am.

The Lord is the strength of my salvation.

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ.;
For it is the power of God unto salvation
For everyone that believeth.

Psalm 27:1

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is my strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concerns.
