“They who are Sisters”

You didn't choose each other....

Fate took care of that.

Bound by blood and upbringing.

You've been through it all.

You've shared experiences

that have shaped you

Into the women you are.

Alike in many ways, yet so different,

Sometimes you question

Whether you came from the same gene pool

Much less the same planet.

But an eternal bond

that transcends friendship

Fuses you together

With a never-ending,

unquestionable love.

But here's the bottom line.....

She really is the one

You can call at four in the morning.

She really is the one that's always there.

And you thank God you have a sister.

(Following the service)

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
