Her Life Remembered...

On December 5, 2014, Leola Lewis Hall was called to be with her Heavenly Father.

Leola Lewis Hall, affectionately called “Nana” was born in Pensa Cola, Florida on June 4, 1932. She was the youngest of two children. Preceding her in death are her parents, Ceola and Robert G. Lewis, her brother, Junior Lewis and two grandsons, Barry Walker and Troy Hall. Leola was married to the late Victor Charles Edward Hall, Sr. who preceded her in death.

Mrs. Hall accepted Christ into her life and joined The New Gospel COGIC under the leadership of Bishop Rodney S. Cannon.

Leola came to New York where she finished her formal education at Booker T. Washington in the New York Public School system. She then attended the Fashion Institute of Technology where she specialized in milinery, coats and dresses. Aside from sewing, “Nana” loved to cook. Her rolls and cakes were to die for.

She is survived by: her only son, Victor Charles Edward Hall, Jr. of New York, NY; a special goddaughter, Jean Johnson of New York; a dear sister-in-law, Ruby Watkins of Hollis, Queens; five grands; two great grands and one great-great grand and there are also a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

God Saw That She Was Getting Tired

God saw that she was getting tired,
A cure was not meant to be
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer, And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly, We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Lovingly Submitted
By her son

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been good, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, God set me free!

Lovingly Submitted
By her goddaughter
