Job was a professional painter and took his work very seriously; he never cut corners when it came to painting, he as much as told his clients if he didn't like the color. He had a passion for music there was always music playing on the weekends when friends came over to hang; he had a vast collection of different genres, enjoyed partying from Friday to Sunday, dressed to impress and still have some of the clothes to prove it, his love for sports was unconditional.

He is survived by: his lifetime partner, Norma Garrett; sister, Phyllis Baird; daughters, Donna, Andrea, Alonia, Genevieve and Marva; sons-in-law, Glenford, Linden and Donnie; nephew, Yusef; grandniece and nephews, Yusef, Gilroy Jr., Girard, Tamyra and Rahsean; grandchildren, Tiffany, Linden Jr., Arielle, Michelle, Cory, Crystal and Adrian; great grands, Peter Jr., Tristan and Laila; and a host of close family and friends.

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful;
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your weary eyelids
and whispered, "Peace be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
