Obituary

Clara Jane Hill was born on March 20, 1935 to the late Moses and Jane Richards Arrington in Weldon, North Carolina. On December 20, 2014, Clara went to be with the Lord. She was set free from the pain and suffering she endured for three years.

Clara attended schools in Weldon as well as in Roanoke Rapids, NC. At an early age, Clara accepted Christ and she never wavered from her faith.

Clara was known for having a big heart of gold and a great sense of humor! She would always help others, and she would literally give you the shirt off her own back. Her passions were for cooking and doing hair. She was an excellent beautician and everybody loved the food she prepared. Clara's beautiful personality made many people smile. She loved to talk to people, and no one was a stranger to her. Clara was also a loving and devoted wife to her husband of fifty-nine years, James.

Clara was preceded in death by her parents, her son, Brian Hill, two sisters, Virginia Davis and Georgia Muckelvene, her niece, Pamela Richardson, and her nephew, Clifton Wilkison.

Clara leaves to mourn: her husband, James Hill; two daughters, Stephanie Palmer and Sandra Hill (Stanley) both of Newark, NJ; six grandchildren, Kenyatta Palmer, Abdul Duren, Jamal Jackson and Basha Hill and Newark, NJ, Shaneequah Muhammad of St. Louis, MO and Dezhiah Hill of Irvington, NJ; eleven great grandchildren, Dawnasia, Tanasia, Zaire, Nijaron, Jamirah, A'siyah, Kayla, Emyia, Aminah, Skylar and Haneef; one sister, Frankie Arrington Maples of Ashville, NC; one brother, James Arrington (Bea) of Stroudsburg, PA; two sisters-in-law, Camilee Brinkley and Anniebell Garner, both of Roanoke Rapids, NC; a daughter-in-law, Theresa Hill; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

God's Garden

*God looked upon his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth
and saw your tired face.*

*He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.*

*God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.*

He knew you would never Get well on earth again.

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone*

*For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*
