Obituary

On Wednesday, December 24, 2014, God sent his angels to New York to pick up his child, Mark Robinson.

He will be joining his late wife, Maria Nieves. Mark Robinson better known as “Rickabacker” was born to Bertha Larkin, and Alan Slade on January 13, 1959.

He was a poet who spoke the truth and gave words of wisdom. He was outspoken, vivacious, fun-loving and always there for you in your time of need.

Those who knew him could not help but to love him. His love, kindness and generosity was unending for his family and friends.

He is survived by: his children, Mark, Marcel, Maurice, Markus, Marcal and Marquis; grandchildren, Sierra, Cory, Maria, Madison and Milan; sisters, a host of nieces, nephews and a host of other family members and friends.

*Today I find a reason to praise no more time to waste,
My dark days are gone, now that I live for God.
My spirit's strong, I'm moving ahead,
No longer do I live amongst the dead.
He forgave me, He saved me, washed my sins away
He took me out of darkness, now I see brighter days.
(All because of his mercy and grace) A new heart he replaced.
Never felt like this before
Even when the hurt was so much more.
You comforted me and held me close filled me with the Holy Ghost.
I sing this song because of you and all that you brought me through I sing this song on this new day because I was lost and you showed me the way.*

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

Acknowledgement

We the family of the late Mark Robinson would like to take this time to thank all of you for sharing your acts of kindness with us in our time of bereavement. It is our prayer that God continues to bless and keep you.
