Obituary

Plina Mae Steele was born on July 17, 1933 in Mount Hebron, Alabama to Jessie Bell and Mary Lee Brown. Mae entered God's heavenly gates on Saturday, December 27, 2014 at the tender age of eighty-one.

Mae attended elementary and high school in Alabama. She then moved to New Jersey where she enjoyed the rest of her joyful life for over sixty years.

Mae decided to attend business school in New Jersey. She graduated and received her Executive Secretarial Degree. She retired from Woodbridge State School in Avenel, NJ where she worked for well over sixteen years. After retirement, she was blessed to enjoy the rest of her life enjoying and loving her family.

Mae leaves to cherish her memories: her eldest daughter, Brenda Steele; her Son/Grandson, Maurice Steele; her grandchildren, Ollie Steele (partner, Cielita Campbell), Michael Steele (spouse, Stephanie Steele), Tashona Steele (spouse, Tony Steele) and Najia Steele; seven great grandchildren, one niece, Donna Bell-Dodd and three nephews, Jessie Bell, Willie James Bell and Michael Mott and many devoted friends and people who loved her.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Mary Lee Brown, her sister, Ethel Louise Bell, her daughter, Willie Mae Johnson, her life partner, Fred Mountford and her children's father, Willie Steele.

Mae loved all her family and friends. She often gave her last to help others. She opened her home and heart on numerous occasions to help her family, people in need and even strangers. She was truly loved by all and will be deeply missed. Her memory and love will be cherished forever.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want He maketh me lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*
