Obituary

Ann Elizabeth Cooper

We are here today to celebrate the life of Ann E. Cooper. She was born January 6, 1937 in Norfolk, VA. She entered the gates of heaven on January 1, 2015 in New York City, surrounded by all her children.

She has gone home to be with her father and mother, Stover John and Naomi Simmom, her son, Todd Cooper and six brothers, John, Bruce, Bernard, Steve, Charles and Bill Simmons and one sister, Ruth Heyward.

Ann leaves behind to mourn her loss: two sons, Jeff Cooper of New York, NY, Edward Cooper and daughter-in-law, Sheilda Cooper of Virginia Beach, VA; three daughters, Robin Cooper of Raleigh, NC, Kimberly Ann Cooper of Staten Island, NY and Crystal Zehourou and son-in-law, AE Standback of Staten Island, NY; her loving sister, Wilhelmina Phillips of Winston Salem, NC; five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Ann was a loving mother, sister and friend. Now she is looking down on us all, doing what she did best looking out for our well-being.

Her smile brightened the day for all who ever saw her. She never met a stranger, she was always there to help, or just to give a kind word.

Mommy (as her children like to call her), we love you and we will miss you.

"See you at the crossroad"

Repast immediately following the ceremony in the Metropolitan Fellowship Hall.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
