Obituary

Icylinda Mulgrave, better known as Mummy or Aunty. Was born on the 10th of November 1941, the first child to the late Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Mulgrave. Aunty hails from Westmoreland, Jamaica.

She attended Retrieve All Age School where she completed her full elementary education. Aunty was the mother of three, Marlene, Bobette and Cecil, who she called her washbelly, because he was the baby. In 2001, Aunty/Mummy migrated to the United States of America to live with her daughter, Marlene in Bloomfield, New Jersey, there she worked at Annie Sez department store for five years and retired in 2009.

Anyone who knows Icylinda would know in the mornings it was her pleasure to sit on the steps and feed the birds. She was also famous for her cooking, mainly her carrot juice, collard greens, roast pork and her sweet potato pudding. (Ohhhh I'm feeling hungry now.) This woman had a strength that was admirable, she was caring, honest and very private just to name a few adjectives to describe her. Aunty enjoyed a good game of dominos and ludi game.

Aunty was a breast cancer survivor, but took ill in November 2014 and succumbed to her illnesses on the 28th of December 2014. Aunty leaves to cherish her memories: her daughters, Marlene Dohman and Bobette Gentles; her son, Cecil Campbell; her sister, Gloria Mulgrave and brother, Samuel Mulgrave; nieces and nephews namely, Maxine, Lisa, Charmaine, Shuland, Cynthia, Jermaine and Michael; seven grandchildren, eight great grand's, and a host of other relatives and close friends. May her soul rest in perpetual peace.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
