Obituary

Valerie D. Culbreth was born in Queens, New York on February 25, 1961, to the late Virginia Culbreth and James Culbreth. Valerie struggled with situations in life, but she always had faith.

Valerie also known as "Val" will always be remembered as a strong and overly proud woman. Regardless of her struggles or tribulations in her life. She still continued to show her love to her love ones in her own special way.

Valerie was raised in Queens, New York where she resided in a house with her late sister, Anne Culbreth and brother, Kenny, where she had four children, daughter, Shanique, one and only son, Jason, her baby girl, Patricia, she later on had another daughter, Quintisha. She always kept faith to be on her own, where she then got her new apartment where she resided in Patterson Houses with her children. She was so happy to accomplish that on her own. Struggling as a single mother, but she continued to hold on to faith. Approximately in 2013, Valerie got diagnosed with breast cancer. Despite the pain, she battled the disease, got through as a survivor from having faith, she made sure that she stayed in good spirits and tried her hardest to stay in contact with family.

On January 2, 2015 at 8:45pm God called her home. He needed her more than we did. Despite our grief, we must know that she is in a better place. Today is not a sad day, it's a celebration to send her home, and that we pray we shall see her again. She really didn't want to leave us, but now it was the moment that an angel was sent to carry her to resting place.

Her life was meaningful, full of laughter somewhat a comedian, she brought tears and laughter and she always had a story to tell. We loved her so much. Valerie also known as "Ma" and "Val" leaves to cherish: three daughters, Shanique, Patricia and Quintisha; one and only son, Jason; three brothers, William also known as Bill, Lawrence (Ricky) and Kenneth; and one sister the late, Anne Culbreth; and her one and only granddaughter, Quantaya.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
