Obituary

Alesia Denise Wormley was born on June 20, 1963 to Ernestine Wormley-Patterson and Peter Hargrove in Birmingham, AL. She departed this life on February 27, 2015 at home.

Alesia attended Cleveland Elementary School in 1976, and West Kinney School in 1979 both in Newark, NJ. She Graduated high school from Frank H. Morrell High School in Irvington, NJ in 1982. After graduating, she worked at numerous employments until she gained employment with the United States Postal Service in Newark, NJ for twenty-six years until she became ill.

“Lisa,” known to family, and friends was loving, outgoing, fun and outspoken. Lisa wasn’t afraid to speak her mind. She made sure those she loved and cared for had a safe and warm place to come and gather to. She made all types of food to fill your belly and enjoyed watching you eat. Lisa was the life of the party and was a good listener.

Alesia is survived by: her son, Shamar H. Wormley; mother, Rev. Ernestine Patterson; sisters, Sagirah Patterson-Lacy, and Pamela J. Patterson; brothers, Arrais L. Wormley and Carl R. Patterson; nephews, Jarell L. Patterson and Devion E. Lacy; nieces, Samiyah J. Lacy and Keziah Jones; aunts, Geraldine Purnell, Cleo Wormley and Angela Murray (Steve); uncles, George Purnell (Grace) and Will Owens (Margaret); and a host of other relatives and friends.

Alesia was predeceased by her grandmother, Ollie “Madea” Wormley, and her loving father, Charles R. Patterson

Hey I'm so happy to see you. I knew you would be here, because when I asked where you're going your response was either work or home. I called your phone over fifteen times while walking over and you didn't answer. I waited for your response to the sound of the bell, you didn't answer. After waiting for a while I realized you were asleep. I called again and couldn't help but leave a message. The message was to let you know, its cold outside and my appetite is very big for some of your delicious food. So when you get this message call me and please don't yell at me for coming by too late. I left, wish you would call me before I reached home so we can have our aunt and nephew time over a good meal. Love you Aunt Lisa and thanks for being my second mom.
- Nephew, Jarell Lavon Patterson

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
