Obituary

Dwayne (Hassan) Coleman was born August 13, 1962 in Butler, Alabama to the late Willie J. Coleman and Margaret Moorcer Coleman. Dwayne was educated in Newark, attending McKinley Grammar School, Webster Middle School and Barringer High School. After graduating high school he went to Job Corps. He was preceded in death by his twin sons, Hassan and Dwayne Coleman, and also his nieces, Kendall Montague and Shafeequah Coleman. Dwayne departed this life on February 18, 2015 in Newark, New Jersey.

Dwayne met his fiancé, Evelyn, in Newark, NJ in 1976. From their union two children were born. In the 90's, Hassan dedicated the son Always & Forever to Evelyn, who was the love of his life. Hassan held various jobs. The last job he held was working for T-Farese & Sons, a private garbage disposal company in Newark, NJ.

Hassan was affiliated with Providence Missionary Baptist Church where he went with his family. They also visited other churches. Hassan believed in the Lord, had faith and believed in the Bible. He would always say; “read the Bible and you will understand the Lord.”

Hassan loved music, dancing and partying with family. He also loved basketball, playing pool, video games, and watching horror, cowboy and karate movies. Hassan loved to help people and to give advice to family and friends. Hassan lived with, loved and grew up with the entire Toney family.

Dwayne (Hassan) Coleman leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved fiancé, Evelyn; his daughters, Lakisha Mayo of Newark, NJ, Allekah Wright of Trenton, NJ, Hassanah and Shanette Coleman of Newark, NJ; his sisters, Margaret Ann Montague of Pennsylvania and Dorothy Pincus of California; brothers, Jimmie Gordon of New Jersey and Willie Coleman Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; six grandchildren, Yashira, Zaire, Lahnyce, Sharmaine, Darrell and Qiaun; a favorite niece, Latoya Coleman; two special nephews, Quamir and Symir; and a host of other nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

To Those I Love

To Those Whom I Love And Those Who Love Me When I am gone, release me, let me go I have so many things to see and do You must not tie yourself to me with tears be happy we have had this many years I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness I thank you for the love each has shown but now it is time I travelled on alone So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust It is only for a while that we must part so bless the memories in your heart I will not be far away, for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near and if you listen with your heart, you will hear all of my love around you soft and clear.

Then, when you must come this way alone

I will greet you with a smile and say,

Acknowledgements

The Family of Dwayne H. Coleman with deepest gratitude, acknowledge all of the cards, prayers, calls and many acts of kindness extended to them during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless you.
