Obituary

Annette Marie Brooks began her life in Greensboro, North Carolina to Irene Ware McLean and Leon C. Ware on September 17, 1956. Annette Ware Brooks was raised in Newark, New Jersey and attended/graduated in Newark Public School System.

As a young woman, Annette worked in Banking. She also worked in billing for a small sheet metal company along side her husband, K. L. Brooks. She was a great cook, awesome baker, caring and loving mother. Who prided herself on her children and family.

Her past time was bowling and she loved to gamble with her mother and sister in Atlantic City and attending her two youngest daughters, basketball games.

She was an active member of Solid Rock Baptist Jehovah Jireh and Second Baptist Church. Annette received Christ Jesus and we can take solace in knowing she is alive with Christ.

Annette was a young woman who would give all she had especially when she knew there was a need. She stood the test of time in health and sickness for fifty-eight years of her life.

Annette left us too soon without seeing all her dreams come true and doing all she may have planned and wanted to do.

Annette passed away at Newark Rehab and Health on April 6, 2015. Annette fought a hard complicated fight of faith but her illness took her away too soon.

Annette married and divorced, K. L. Brooks and leaves behind three children, Tamika Ware, Katrina Ware and Betina Ware; her mother, Irene D. McLean Ware, four siblings, Leno C. Ware, Ann Ware Crawley, Mary Ware Bedward, Shirley Ware Griffin and niece, great-nieces, nephews and a host of other family members.

She was predeceased by her siblings, Veronica Ware White and Allen L. Ware.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
