Obituary

We never dreamed that we would be writing an obituary for our baby sister. Her death had come unexpectedly. Through the foggy haze of it all, we are reminded that she was the definition of love in its purest form.

Ja'Myra was a rare and special person and you knew it while in her presence. She had a multitude of friends and an ability to extend herself to others. She took great care and pride in the nurturing of her friendships. She balanced her unconditional love with her willingness to be blunt when sharing her views.

Ja'Myra remains to be a precious pure gem. She radiated kindness, intelligence and great wit. She had a wonderful sense of humor and an infectious laugh. Her friends were naturally drawn back for more helpings of Ja'Myra's company and food, as she loved to cook.

Ja'Myra was so academically talented. She graduated salutatorian of her middle school class and then went on to receive her high school diploma from West Kinney High School in Newark, NJ, where she was once again ranked in the top of her class. From there she went on to work in the South Orange/Maplewood School District for over a decade, taking on several different roles and responsibilities. She worked for Thibaut Design in Newark, NJ when the Lord called her home.

She will also be remembered by a host of other relatives and friends that will continue to celebrate her life.

My Resting Place

*As along life's rugged path I trod,
I find my resting place with God.
Tho' cares are many along the way,
By His tender touch, they are swept away.
As I climb the mountains with weary feet,
His outstretched arms are there to greet.
I find blest comfort; my pain erased,
As I nestle there in His sweet embrace.
While at river's crossing, or on barren land .
Tired from my journey, I rest again -
in the arms of God, where he waits once more
To ease my travels just like before.
O'er hill and valley, and troubled sea,
Or wherever my steps shall carry me,
My strength is renewed by infinite Grace
That comes from God,
"My Resting Place."*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
