Obituary

Christine Moore resident of Irvington, NJ, daughter of the late Lillian Carey Robinson. Raised by the late Reverend Robert and Rebecca Logan. Christine was born in Perth Amboy, NJ on March 3, 1936.

Christine (Chris to the family, Red or Mustang Sally to others) moved to Newark in her early years. She graduated from South Side High School (Malcolm X Shabazz) from there she went on to attend and graduated from Bloomfield College.

Chris gave birth to a daughter, Rebecca L. Carey and a son, Gary T. Carey.

In October 1956 she married the late Ernest (Sonny) Moore who she remained married to until his passing.

Chris worked as a Supervisor/Manager at Sea Land Import/Export Shipping Company. She was a member of the Eastern Stars. Chris was a well rounded individual. She had vast hobbies and interests, crossword and board puzzles, bowling, wrestling, baseball and believe it or not motorcycles, movies and music. She was also part of the That's What Friends Are For Organization in Las Vegas, NV.

Chris loved to travel and gamble, she has been all over the world to 5 continents: Africa, Australia, Asia, Europe and different parts of North America.

After retirement, Chris moved to Las Vegas, NV where she lived until she had a stroke in 2009. When she recovered she moved back to Jersey to live with her daughter during her remaining days.

Christine truly lived and enjoyed her life on this Gods earth and now she's in heaven.

Chris leaves behind to carry on her memory: her daughter, Rebecca Carey-Garcia. She was predeceased by her son, Gary T. Carey, Ernest Moore (husband) and Clarissa Starks (goddaughter). She had seven grandchildren, Antoine and Lawanda Carey (biological) by son, Gary, Angela, Shakile Brooks and Mannix Washington (adopted) by daughter, Rebecca, Alversia and Amanda Starks children of goddaughter, Clarissa; ten great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren; three brothers, James Carey (NJ), Robert Logan (NJ) and Kareem Hassan (Philippines); three sisters, Joyce Brooks (NJ), Shirley Robinson (NJ) and Tawfika Harris (GA); brother-in-law, Larry Brooks (NJ); son-in-law, Edwin Garcia (PA); daughter-in-law, Wanda Carey (NJ). Also leaving a host of nieces, nephews, other loved ones, relatives and friends.

A Mother

*A mother is a savior,
A special friend as well,
Someone you can talk to,
Someone you can tell.
She listens to your problems
Never lets you down.*

*Soothes you with her smile
Through your ups and downs.
One thing is certain in my mind
I am sure.*

*You are the best Mother of all.
And I love you more and more.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
