Obituary

Ollie Mae (Williams) Veniszee was born to the late Johnnie and Maggie Williams on November 11, 1929 in Bainbridge, Georgia.

One of three siblings to a sister and brother, Ollie grew up in Georgia and attended public school and became a baptized believer at an early age. Ollie came to live in Newark, NJ in 1955, and had been a member of Zion Baptist Church for many years. She was married to A.D. Veniszee and to this union one child was born and they named him Adolphus.

Ollie was a faithful member of the Zion Baptist Church where she was also a member of the gospel choir, Nurse Unit and Pastors Aide Ministry. She worked at Munn Variety Shop for many years. Ollie was also a great cook and enjoyed making desserts and sharing them with others.

Ollie and her husband, A.D. purchased a home in Newark where all the family members would gather and get a chance to enjoy her delicious cooking. After the unfortunate passing of her husband A.D., she sold the house and relocated to Iselin, NJ, where her son found a beautiful home for her and resided there for three years.

As time went on Ollie became ill and was not able to take care of herself. The family placed Ollie in JFK Hartwyck at Edison Estates, a beautiful nursing home that went above and beyond for her. Her friend sister, Bonney was right there by her side until she was called home. Her son was there for his mother and loved her very well. He visited her every day and catered to her every need.

On May 6, 2015 Ollie was called home to be with our Father.

She leaves to mourn her passing: a devoted son, Adolphus; daughter-in-law, Janice; two grandsons, Ahmad and Muran; one great-grandson, Jordan Ahmad; a wonderful godson, Reggie Miller; devoted cousin, Ann of Georgia; devoted caring friend, Maude Malone-Bonney; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, friends and the Zion Church family.

Armstrong who came to visit and pray for her on Thursday at the nursing home.

Friends Forever

I'm Free

I'm free praise the Lord
I'm free, no longer bound
No more chains holding me,
My soul is resting, it is such a blessing,
Praise the Lord Hallelujah,
I'm Free.
