Obituary

Warner Robinson was born in Philadelphia on September 3, 1932 to Luther Robinson and Mary Shorter. Not long after he completed High School, he joined the US Air Force where he traveled the world. After his discharge he moved to New York and married Dorothy Holmes in 1955. From that union they had two sons, Warner Robinson Jr. and Nikita Robinson.

After being in business with his father as an exterminator, he went to Marron Business Institute and completed a course in executive accounting with business administration and NCR accounting machine on February 26, 1971. In 1983 he attended Adelphi University and received his Bachelors Degree of Science. While at the University he also received his Masters Degree as a Social Worker on May 31, 1985.

At the City School District of New York-Division of Personnel Office of Staffing Services, he received a certificate as Teacher Of School Social Worker on September 6, 1988.

At the University of The State of New York, he was certified as a Social Worker on December 18, 1989.

Warner also went to the James Satterwhite Academy and completed a course in child abuse and neglect, recognition and reporting on April 21, 1994.

As you can see, Warner had a heart for helping people as a Social Worker. He loved talking about problems in the world and what needed and should be done to help all people no matter who or what color they were.

During his years on this earth he touched so many people in a positive way and more lives than we could possibly mention. He will be sorely missed. He leaves behind to mourn: his sister, Marry Catherine in California; his two sons, Warner Jr. and Nikita; his cousins here in New York, Phillip Jackson, Dianne Robinson, and Malcolm; other cousins, in Sumter, South Carolina, two nieces in Philadelphia, and numerous other cousins, nephews, nieces and a wide host of friends. But most of all his long time home attendant, Ann Diaz who have been as faithful as a person can be. Ann was with Warner to the end and may God continue to bless you.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
