Mrs. Belle Anderson Higgs was born on June 6, 1918 in Bleckley County, Georgia, a daughter of the late William Anderson and Annie Mae Blackshear. The Lord called her home early Friday morning, May 8, 2015 after a long illness. She received her formal education in the Bleckley and Bibb County public school systems.

In 1935 she met Nathaniel Bloodworth and from that union they had a son in 1936 Bobby Bloodworth. Belle then decided it was time to expand her horizons and with her family members they moved to Paterson, New Jersey in 1938. After moving to Paterson, she met Isaac Higgs and after a long courtship they were united in matrimony on October 5, 1940. Belle and Isaac gave their life to the Lord and were faithful members of St. Luke Baptist Church for more than sixty years. Where she was a devoted Deaconess, Missionary and faithful church member.

Belle was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, aunt and friend to many. Belle and Isaac loved spending time with their family and friends especially their many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Belle loved trips to Shea Stadium, concerts and plays, taking her grandchildren to amusement parks and during her later years traveling with her granddaughter.

She was predeceased by her husband, the late Isaac Higgs, her son, Bobby Bloodworth, Sr, her brothers, Frank Anderson and Jerry Eason, her sisters, Willie Mae Paul, Rachel Redmond, Millie Ann DuBose, Annie Lee and Emma Lou Anderson, and her grandson, Gregory McMillan.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: her

LIFE REFLECTIONS

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
When day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
Softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days,
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Oh happy memories that I leave behind
When day is done.*
