Obituary

Charity Lewis, affectionately known as “Twana”, was born to Thaddeus Harris and Elizabeth Lubeck-Harris on Saturday, December 6, 1935 in Orange, New Jersey. She passed into the arms of her Heavenly Father quietly on Tuesday, May 12, 2015 at St. Mary’s Rehabilitation Center in Orange, New Jersey.

Charity completed her education within the Orange, NJ public school system. Charity later married Milton Glass, Jr. To this union three children were born. After the birth of her children she became a full-time homemaker. She was a resident of New Community Roseville in Newark for over twenty years where she was most known for her morning coffee and wearing her favorite color – RED.

Charity enjoyed most playing cards with her sister and other friends. She took every opportunity she could to travel to Atlantic City where she would play the slot machines. She attended Revival Temple and Outreach Christian Ministries in Newark, NJ whenever possible. She also attended Happy Days II Adult Medical Day Care in Newark. She always utilized the services of their manicurist to keep herself looking beautiful; not to mention those earrings she loved so much to complete her look.

Charity was preceded in death by her grandson, Tyron Green.

Charity “Twana” Lewis is survived by: her two daughters, Tanya Martin of Henrico, Virginia and Shirley Glass of Newark, New Jersey; one son, Milton Glass III of the Bronx, New York; four grandchildren, Melvin, Bobby, Kiyana and Dinesha; twelve great grandchildren; one sister, Esther Harris; one brother, Franklin Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, great grandnieces; grandnephews, great grandnephews and other beloved persons who will truly miss her.

Legacy

Don't spend too much time mourning, tears are for the sad.

I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad.

*Don't waste your hours in grieving,
no need to feel distressed.*

I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to get some rest.

Don't lose the love I gave you, feed it with your care.

Grow it with devotions and spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.

*We'll have another meeting,
in God's Eternal day.*

Acknowledgements

Our family wishes to express sincere thanks and deep appreciation for the many prayers, expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness shown during this time of bereavement. Your support, calls, visits, flowers and cards will always be remembered. To all the devoted caregivers that have assisted in the health care of our loved one throughout the years. Many of whom we have come to know by name and others whom we have heard so much about...we can't thank you enough. Please pray that we will not put a question mark where God has put a period.

-Sincerely,
The Family
