Obituary

Irene Brown was born on December 31, 1923 to Emma and Isom Pugh in Windsor, North Carolina. She is the oldest of seven children.

Ms. Irene was educated in North Carolina. She met and married William Brown (deceased) from which three sons were born, William Lewis, Melvin (who preceded her in death) and Leon Brown. She moved to New York City and raised their sons. She worked for many years and retired from Albert Einstein Hospital. She liked to shop and loved to cook and eat with and for family, friends and neighbors.

She leaves to mourn: two of her three sons, William Lewis and Leon Brown; two sisters, Odell Craig who lives in North Carolina and Nicola Bond who lives in New York City; one brother, Rudolph Pugh who lives in North Carolina; one sister-in-law, Berla Mae and one brother-in-law, Clifford Craig; two daughters-in-law, Betty and Hattie Brown; nine grandchildren, seven great-grands and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
