Obituary

Nicole Alise Reeves was born October 20, 1972 in New York, NY to Angela Watts and Authur Reeves.

She grew up in Jamaica Queens where she attended P.S 140 until she moved to Staten Island and graduated from I.S.61. From there she moved to New Jersey where she lived most of her adult life.

There she attended Camden Bible Tabernacle, where she was an active member on many committees. One of her many accomplishments was having her son, Tyree Quadir Lyons-Reeves on August 5, 1995. As well as getting her cosmetology license. She then moved to Virginia and attend Everst College and graduated at the top of her class certifying her as a nurse assistant. Virginia is where she met her loving husband, Jonathan Dixon.

Nicole leaves behind to cherish her precious memories: husband, Jonathon Dixon; mother, Angela Ragland; fathers, Donald Williams and Ronald Quinitehette; son, Tyree Quadir Lyons-Reeves; grandmother, Elizabeth Williams; sisters, Monet Buckner, Toshiba Ragland and Tansha Edwards; brother, Michael Buckner, Naxir Watts, Jeryl Quinitehette and Marice Rouse. She also leaves behind, aunts, uncles, five nieces and three nephews; three step-daughters, and many cousins and friends whom she really loved dearly.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
