Obituary

Marvin King was born on July 10, 1959 to the late Lacey and Willie Mae King in Newark, NJ.

Marvin attended Central High School in the city of Newark. Soon after high school at the age of eighteen, Marvin married his wife, Joann of thirty-eight years on November 29, 1977. Several years later their family began to grow with two beautiful children, their daughters, Shenise Norell King and their son, Marvin Lamar King.

Marvin was a faithful employee for Roselli Sanitation in East Orange, NJ as a sanitation worker for many years until he sustained a serious back injury that left him disabled.

Marvin was a loving person to all that deeply knew him. Marvin always loved to gather with close friends and family for special occasions. Marvin always looked forward to the gatherings because this gave him the opportunity to show off his favorite suits, hats and shoes and he always wore dark shades. Marvin enjoyed old school music while having his favorite cold beer.

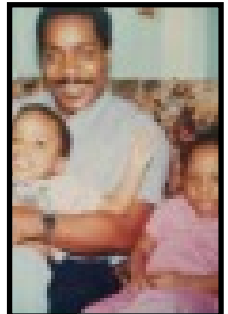

Marvin lived a very very low key life mostly around his wife, Joann and their two children. Marvin was quiet at times, he always enjoyed watching his favorite shows on television. At most he had a likeable personality but underneath there was a side of stubbornness that would show up on the scene and at this time he would speak his mind and he didn't sugar coat it.

There came a point in his life that he decided to join the church and at this time his spirit began to be lifted, he was happy. He looked forward to Sunday morning to attend church.

Marvin was a loving husband, father, brother and friend. He will be greatly missed by all.

Marvin was preceded in death by his father, Lacey King, his mother, Willie Mae King, his brothers, Charles King, Lacey King Jr and sisters, Juanita Hampton and Doris King.

Marvin leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Joann King; their daughter, Shenise Norell King; their son, Marvin Lamar King; brother-in-law, Willie J. Samuels; his sisters, Denise King, Diane King, Joan King, Ellamae Boyd and Mary King; his brothers, Leonard King and Johnny King; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

Beyond The Sunset

*Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone
I'll live in memories garden dear with happy days we've known In spring I'll wait for roses red when fades the lilacs blue
And in early fall when brown leaves
call I'll catch a glimpse of you I'll hear your voice I'll see your smile though blindly I may grope
The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope Should you go first and I remain one thing I'll have you do Walk slowly down that long path for soon I'll follow you*

I want to know each step you take so I may take the same. For someday down that lonely road you'll hear me call your name.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
