Obituary

Proverbs 18:24

One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Eternal rest was bestowed upon our dear father, brother, uncle, cousin and friend, Larry Darnell Freeman on May 27, 2015 in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Larry Darnell Freeman, the son of the late James Otis Veale and Daisy Lee Freeman was born on November 25, 1964 in Ahoskie, North Carolina. Larry was the youngest son of twelve children. He was raised in Jersey City, New Jersey and later moved to Newark, New Jersey where he attended Caldwell High School in Caldwell, New Jersey.

Larry was an avid bike rider. He loved riding his bike across town. He was family oriented. He loved his family dearly and always had a smile or joke to greet you.

After completing his high school education, he returned to Jersey City where he began his working career in construction. He later worked for the Department of Sanitation for fifteen years. After leaving the Department of Sanitation he started working as a mechanic. He loved detailing cars and took great pride in his work.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James Otis Veale and Daisy Lee Freeman, his siblings, Alice Jane Freeman, James Earl Freeman, Willie Lee Freeman and Chucky Ray Freeman.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Cheryl Freeman of Jersey City; sons, Larry Rouse, Darnell McMillian and Justin Velazquez; step-son, Charles Johnson; daughter, Taheara Wiggins; siblings, Marilyn Freeman of Jersey City, Gwendolyn Freeman-Armstrong (John) of Newark, Brenda Morgan (Larry) of Hillside, Rudolph Freeman (Emma) of Jersey City, Wanda Rushing (Clifton) of Lake Mary, Florida, LaTayna Freeman, Marion Hawkins (Eric) of Union and Carnell Dukes of West New York; four grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled
room, Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me-but let me go.

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
