Obituary

Lula Mae Harris was born February 28, 1940, to the late William (Buster), and Lula Freeman, she was one of seven children.

Lula Mae Harris was a devoted and loving wife to Luther Edward Harris for fifty-six years, to this union she was blessed with four wonderful children, whom she loved and cherished deeply, daughters, Cheryl Harris, Phyllis Harris and Lisa Young, son, Luther Edward Harris Jr., Granddaughters, Catrina Harris, Vaness Harris, Breeya Harris, Talisa Young, Tania Young, Grandsons: Tywron Harris (Ruby), Jahdoni Harris (Karina) and Gaybreyon Harris, six great-grandchildren.

Lula Mae Harris was educated in South Carolina, she held several certifications, that prepared her to provide for her family. She worked for New Jersey Bell for over twenty years as a supervisor, she also worked for Woodbridge State Hospital.

Lula Mae Harris Loved her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ with all her heart and soul, she was a member of Mt. Herman Baptist Church of Anderson SC from a child until her move to New Jersey, Lula Mae became a member of Green Pasture Missionary Baptist Church, then Divinity Baptist Church. Mae (as she liked to be called) served her church in spirit and in truth on the following auxiliaries: usher board, choir, cook, nursing unit, missionary board and Pastor aide. Mae would cook and take food to the homeless at Newark Penn Station as Missionary.

Mae served church as long as her health permitted, until she could serve no more, however she still kept the Lord close to her heart, In her spare time she enjoyed trips to Atlantic City, as many others do after retiring.

Lula Mae was preceded in eternal rest by her siblings, Lois, George Ella Morris, Sandra Norris, Ruby McCowen, William Freeman Jr. and survived by sister, Evangelist Doris Gray.

Lula Mae Harris leaves to cherish her memory of life: her loving husband, Luther Harris; her children, Cheryl Harris, Phyllis Harris and Lisa Young; her son, Luther E. Harris Jr.; son-in-law, Juan Young; daughter-in-law, Shirl Harris, eight grandchildren and great-grandchildren; sister, Evangelist Doris Gray of South Carolina; sister-in-law, Betty Park of Holland, Ohio and a host of other family members and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We Thank You, Whatever the part.
