Obituary

Gladys C. Baker was born on May 14, 1932 in Smithfield, Virginia. On the morning of June 3, 2015 God sent one of His angels to Whisper in the ear of Gladys C. Baker and said it was time to move from labor to reward. She was the third of nine children born to Clarence and Aida Tynes. She received her formal Education in Hampton, VA.

God blessed her and she met and married James Baker and from that union came four children, Dorothy, James, Linda and Everette.

Separated from her husband in 1964, she relocated to Orange, New Jersey with her new companion James Uzzle. In 1969 she gave birth to Timothy Uzzle.

Gladys was a fun loving, enthusiastic woman of the community, anyone who knew her enjoyed her presence and her smile. Gladys took pride in her role as mother, grandma, Gater-Gammie and Nana.

She loved to cook her specialty down home southern soul food for all her family and friends. Showing a little of her feisty side she would remind you that she didn't bake cookies, she wasn't a regular grandma-she brought hers from Shop-Rite!

Gladys became a member of Mount Carmel Baptist Church many years ago. Being a soldier for Christ was very important to her. She served as a missionary. She took great pleasure in driving her friends to and from church.

There is no doubt Gladys will be sorely missed for she gave much love and is much loved in return.

Gladys leaves to cherish fond memories: her siblings, Annette, Janette and Ursula; fourteen grandchildren; twenty-nine great-grandchildren; seven great great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

She has joined in eternity her husband, James, her parents, Clarence and Aida, companion, James, her siblings, Emma, Clarice, Billy, Clarence, Albert and Alvin, daughter, Linda and son, Timothy.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, just release me, and Let me go- so I can move into my Afterglow.
You mustn't tie me down with your tears,
let's be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love; you can only guess
how much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown,
but now it's time I travel on alone.

So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must
and then, Let your grief be confronted with trust, It's only for awhile that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

And then, when you must come this way alone.

I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
