Obituary

Ruth E. Kendall Jenkins was born in New York City to the late Fred D. Jenkins and Alberta E. Jenkins on August 8, 1934. She attended P.S. 194, J.H.S. 136 and Yorkville High School. At an early age she became a member of New Mount Zion Baptist Church in NYC until her adult years and then joined St. Charles Catholic Church in NYC. She became a member of the Deborah Chapter of the Eastern Stars.

She worked at the Home for Jewish in Manhattan, NY. Until her employment at Harlem Hospital Medical Records Department, in which she became an active member of 1199 Union under the late Leon Davis. She worked at Harlem Hospital until her retirement.

After a lengthy illness God sent His angels to bring her back to Him on June 10, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. She now is reunited with her loved ones that has gone on before her.

She leaves to mourn her passing: one daughter, Margaret D. Carter (Peggy); one son, Fred V. Jenkins (Freddy) and his companion, Portia Jackson; one adopted daughter, Elenor R. Cabrello (Ellie); one goddaughter, Shanna Mills; three granddaughters, Tarnisha E. Carter, Caralena E.J. Carter and Shanise E. Reed; four great granddaughters, Janiqua L. Carter, Kadijah N. Carter, Jianni D. Murray and Mariah A. Geigel; three great grandsons, Marcus A. Geigel, Candido (CJ) Geigel and Jamone D. Murray; one sister, Edith E. Owens; one adopted sister, Ernestine Mills; two great great granddaughters, Emiya Davenport and Qamira Williams; one great great grandson, Josiah A. Thomas; one great great grandson to be born, August 24, 2015 Gabe Geigel; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. We all loved her but God loved her best.

Interment

Christ Church Cemetery South Amboy, New Jersey

When I must leave you for a little while Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow through the years,
but start out bravely with a gallant smile
for my sake and in God's name.

Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.
