Life Reflections

Floyd Wilson, Jr. was born on November 9, 1948 in Charlotte, North Carolina, son of the late Lillian Wilson and Floyd Wilson, Sr. He attended the Woodbridge Public School system, graduating in 1965. At an early age, Floyd found his first love baseball! Floyd was the first BLACK child to play on the “Woodbridge Little League.” As an adult, Floyd played with several softball teams including the “Sunnyfield Tavern” and “The Zips” which was the team that represented the Linden Post Office. They traveled to compete in many tournaments. Another passion of Floyd's was deep sea fishing. Where he could relax and reflect on life, hang out with friends.

Floyd was employed by the United States Postal Service for 35 years of service, retiring in October 1, 2006.

Having a loving and caring demeanor, Floyd was loved by his family and friends -- never allowing time nor distance to come between the two. He liked to visit his family wherever they were located. Keeping the lines of communication open was a must. He never had a bad thing to say about anyone or anything. Floyd always had an encouraging word for all whom he came in contact with.

On Monday, June 15, 2015, Floyd Wilson, Jr. departed this life in Edison, New Jersey at the age of 67.

Floyd was predeceased by his sister, Rhonda Wilson; and 4 brothers, Floyd and Cicel Withers, and Norman and Curtis Wilson.

Floyd Wilson, Jr. leaves behind to cherish his memories, his beloved son, DeAndre Wilson of Newark, NJ and companion, Reen Turner of Perth Amboy, NJ; 10 brothers: Sam Reid and wife, Wilamae of Charlotte, NC, Calvin Reid and wife, Retta of Charlotte, NC, Nathaniel Wilson of Easton, PA, Walter Wilson of High Point, NC, Robert Wilson of Woodbine, NJ and Larry Wilson of Metuchen, NJ; 8 sisters: Yvonne Baskerville and husband, James of Phillipsburg, NJ, Carol Nicholson and husband, Derwin of Cochran, GA, Christine Howell and husband, Nate of High Point, NC, Lisa Wilson of Buford, GA, Kathryn Wilson of Easton, PA, Loretta Ellis and husband, Chucky of Charlotte, NC and Arnetta Wilson of Rahway, NJ; dear friend and his son's mother, Renee Jenkins-Matthews; and a host of nieces, nephews, dear relatives, and some lifelong friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
