Celebrating the Life of

Miss Janie Hall 1946 - 2015

Janie was born on May 26, 1946 to Edna Hall and Arthur Johnson in Queens, NY.

She received her formal education at Van Buren High School and VEEB School of Nursing.

Janie pursued a career as a nurse and was employed from homecare to hospitals in her community, where she served diligently for 30 years caring for patients, that were in need of her services.

She loved what she did, not only for her skill, but work was Janie's second home, which she shared work experiences with her children, and oh boy what experience did they have.

As a phenomenal mother to Ronald (Darrin) Hall, Corey D. Hall, and Shaniqwa (ShuShu) Hall, she'd show up to the strongest moments for family, friends, and her community.

Baptized at Bethany Baptist Church in Southside, Queens, she sang in the children's choir.

Janie was a very supportive member of the United Baptist Church of Truth for many years. There she raised and encouraged her children and other children to love the name of Jesus and sing praises unto the Lord.

Janie had a great sense of humor, she could tell a story in such a unique way that would make you laugh until you cried. Favorite times as a Grandmother to Khorvon Nelson, Shakira Hall, Taj Nelson, Miasia Brooks, Faith Hall, and Shayla Eldridge, to whom she leaves to cherish her precious memories, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

She departed this life June 12, 2015.

“And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yes, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them”

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgements
