Reflections of Life

Henry W. Harmon “Hank” was born on September 1, 1924 in Scullville, Atlantic County, New Jersey. He was the third child of Laura Jane (Bond) and David Wesley Harmon. He moved with his family to Passaic at an early age.

Henry was educated in the Passaic school system. He served in the U.S. Navy during WW II as a Seaman First Class, in the South Pacific and was honorably discharged on December 7, 1945.

As a youth, Henry shined shoes and at sixteen years old delivered medications on his bike for Briggins Drug Store. Henry was a graduate of Newark School of Auto Body Repair in May of 1952. For many years, he worked for Post & Baker – painting, lettering and repairing cars and trucks, Clifton, NJ; part time at the Clifton Dog & Cat Hospital and U.S. Mail Truck Driver for Ray Laffler, Clifton until retirement.

Henry’s hobbies included his Harley Davidson motorcycle; dog training and health care and car detailing.

He was predeceased by his two sisters, Ella Mae Harmon Taylor and Elizabeth Bond Smith.

Henry W. Harmon, 90, departed this life on Sunday, June 14, 2015.

Henry leaves to cherish his memory: his sister, Helen (Harmon) Allen of Passaic; nephews, Martin of Irvington and Steven (Judith) Allen of Delran; niece, Donna (Stephen) Allen of Tinton Falls; a host of cousins, great-nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

As We Look Back

As we look back over time, we find ourselves wondering Did we remember to thank you enough for all you have done for us? For all the times you were by our sides to help and support us... To celebrate our successes, to understand our problems. And accept our defeats? Or for teaching us by your example, the value of hard work, good judgement, Courage and integrity? We wonder if we ever thanked you for the sacrifices you made. To let us have the very best? And for the simple things like laughter, smiles and times we shared? If we have forgotten to show our gratitude enough for all the things you did, We're thanking you now.

And we are hoping you knew all along,
how much you meant to us.
