Celebration of Life

Otelia Green was born to Clifford and Rosamond

VanDerveer on February 22, 1923 in Newark, New Jersey. She was predeceased by her two brothers, Milton and Raymond VanDerveer.

She was educated in the Newark School System. Otelia held positions at Otis Elevator, RCA Records, and J. Wiss & Sons where she and made important contributions took pride in her work.

Otelia spent 38 years happily married to Norman J. Green, who she lost in 2009. During their marriage they enjoyed traveling to Florida, California, Hawaii, and National Parks.

Otelia will be remembered for her passion for shopping excursions with her daughter Mina, feeding the birds, and she loved to dance. She celebrated her milestone 90th birthday, dancing with all of her family and friends, singing and sharing her easy smile.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted daughter, Otelia "Mina" Robertson (Wayne), and special daughter, Bonnie A. Evans. Four grandchildren, Otelia Faith Robertson, Wayne Anthony Robertson, Shanta A. Lawson, and Nora McLaughlin. Sister-in-law, Geneva VanDerveer, nieces, Lillian Clifton, Joanne Colley, Sandra Jenkins, and a host of other loving relatives and friends. She will be missed.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
