Obituary

Hope Ann Morey was born August 8, 1958 to Frank and Mildred Mascola. She has an older sister, Geraldine Boloti, two brothers, Mark and Frankie Mascola, nephews, Jeffrey and Michael, a niece, Nicole, and a beautiful great niece, Kayla. She is loved deeply and will be truly missed by them all.

“Hello family and friends, my name is James. I am here to talk about Hope, the blessing of my life. We met in Perth Amboy, NJ. We lived in buildings across from each other. I was single at the time and she was with a man, and his name was Bruce. He was a real nice man. Even when I was with my friends he used to stop me to talk. I didn’t mind because he was a nice guy. Hope and I used to see each other passing on the street, say hello, and that was it. I knew there was something there but I don’t step on another man’s toes.”

“Later he passed away due to illness. We got together months later in 1995, and we have been together ever since. March 20th of this year made twenty years. Before Bruce died he told Hope that I was a man she could trust. She told me about this later.”

“Anyway, the first night we were together I woke up early and she was still sleeping, and I said; “Almighty this one I want.” He blessed me with twenty years of her wonderful, beautiful life. When I came down with Leukemia she stayed by my side. She and Almighty gave me the strength to keep fighting. She came to the hospital every day, after work to visit me. I told her to take a few days off, these people are taking good care of me. She did and it helped a lot. She has been there for me through thick and thin. I tried with all my heart to do the same.”

*“Hope, I love you before all the stars in the sky,
and before all the Almighty beholds.”*

Love, James

Psalm 23

*The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me. Thou preparest a table
before me in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
