Reflections of Life

Mackie Lee Wilson was born on April 25, 1959 in Florida to the late Lossie Mae Spires and the late Mackie Lee Wilson, Sr.

Mackie attended 13th Ave School and graduated from Central High. Mackie continued his education at Berks Trade School where his concentration was in Electrical Installations. While Mackie was enrolled at 13th Ave. School, he met his first love, Kim Langley and through this union three lovely children were born.

Mackie grew up in Newark, NJ. He always was the “cool” guy around town. Mackie loved to meet people and always spoke his mind. Mackie was known to be hard headed and was definitely the man to live his life and enjoy it.

Mackie became ill and was called from this life of labor on June 21, 2015. Mackie was predeceased by his mother and father, Lossie Mae Spires and Mackie Lee Wilson, Sr. and his nephew, Dulwan Wilson. He leaves behind to cherish wonderful memories: three beautiful children, Juanita, Taheerah and Taquan Langley; two sisters, Vanessa and Iaquilla Wilson. He also leaves eight grandchildren, Iyannah and Zhikez Washington, Natise Langley, Dwight Washington, Nyquwee Hamilton, Destiny Washington, Teanna, Jahrell and Jaquil Langley; one nephew, Carey Wilson; one aunt, Bertha Lasenberry; and a host of cousins and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
