Obituary

Geneva Quick was born on February 1, 1963. She was one of seven children born to Lee Anna and Claudis, born in Bennettsville, South Carolina. She was called to her Eternal Life on June 20, 2015.

Geneva came to New Jersey when she was a child and this is where she made her home. She liked going to church, taking care of children, collecting things and drinking her coffee. She was a very soft spirited, soft spoken, loving person who had a passion for helping everyone. She was an angel in human form.

Geneva, as she was known by many, leaves to cherish her memory: her spouse, “Dwayne”; her daughters, Latifa and Tamika; her sons, Tyrone, Anthony, Lawrence, Eddie, Lamont, James, Terrell and Christopher; her siblings, Claudette, Veronica, Pee Wee, James and Timmy; twenty-three grandchildren; two great grandchildren; Aunt Dellar; Uncle, Julius; and a host of other relatives and friends.

A Poem For Geneva

I miss you more than these words could ever say. The pain in my heart is from one unimaginable day. After I cried all that I could, my eyes still shed countless more tears. And when I try to sleep, I have nightmares of ten thousand fears. I walk in footsteps on an unsure path, and not sure if I will last. I didn't want to live without you, but you would have wanted me to. And if there is anyone I want to make happy; that anyone is you....
