Celebrating Robin D. Bowden

ROBIN DENISE BOWDEN was born to Ray and Carol Pruitt on July 11, 1959. Surrounded by family, on Monday, June 22, 2015, Robin peacefully transitioned from this earthly existence to her permanent home in Heaven.

Robin was raised in the Bronx, New York at 1481 Washington Avenue. As a young girl, she was very energetic, outgoing and friendly. Early in life, it was evident that Robin was a people person, who would later touch so many with her smile and endearing personality.

Robin was educated in the New York City public school system and served in the Job Corps. After graduating from Jane Adams High School, she began planning her future career, but God had a greater task for her, motherhood!

Before her career in several sectors of the business world kicked off, Robin gave birth to the pride and joy of her life, daughter, Nicole, and son, Eric. She embraced being a Mommy, and devoted herself to selflessly loving, nurturing, and raising her children, even until her final moments.

Robin was hard working and enterprising. Most importantly, she lived life her way! In addition to attending Culinary School, and intermittent site management of vendors at the U.S. Tennis Open, Robin loved working as a Medical Assistant in the Insurance Claims field, and it was here that she demonstrated her natural passion and innate ability for helping people.

Throughout her entire life, Robin was compassionate, sweet, and genuine. She was one who “kept it real” 100%. Her impact on those around her is immeasurable, and she leaves behind a legacy for all to remember and follow.

Our beloved Robin was preceded in death by her grandmother, Ernestine. She leaves to forever cherish her memory: daughter, Nicole; son, Eric; grandchildren, Syncere and Aryqua; mother and father, Mrs. Carol and Mr. Ray Pruitt; one sister, Tina; brother, Ray Charles; niece, Shamea; nephew, Corey; Aunt Montie; Uncle John Henry; sister friends “from the block”, Pamela Cousins and Naomi Graham; as well as a special friend, Donald Richardson, along with an innumerable host of neighbors, friends and associates.

Lovingly submitted, The Family

Acknowledgments

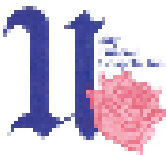

The Family of Robin Denise Bowden extends our deep appreciation to family and friends, near and far, who were so gracious to our beloved Robin during her illness. We feel your love for us in this time of celebration and sorrow. We especially thank the staff at both Montefiore Hospital and Block Hospice for their special care and support of Robin. We will always be grateful to God, for your kindness towards our family.
