Obituary

Jacquelyne Faye Bass was born in Wilson, North Carolina to the late Johnny Mack Bass and Beatrice Williams of Bronx, New York. She was the first of six children.

Jacquelyne was raised by the late Lucy Williams in Long Island, New York. Jackie was devoted to her grandmother who she loved dearly.

She attended and graduated from Taft High School in Bronx, New York. Afterward she attended Farmingdale College in Long Island, New York.

She worked for the IRS from 1986 to 1999. However, she had a love for transportation, and started working for Amtrak in 2002 as an Assistant Conductor and was promoted to Conductor. Jackie loved working with her railroad family. She had various jobs. She also served in the US Army, where she fought for her country in Operation Desert Storm. She was honorably discharged and she received many awards and honors.

Jackie was called home to glory on June 21, 2015.

She leaves to cherish her memories to: her devoted brother, Lorenzo Williams and devoted sister-in-law, Lisa Williams of Lanett, Alabama 36863; two devoted friends she loved like family, Leeann Yates and Sean Strong; her mother, Beatrice Williams; three sisters, Angela Collins, Denise Collins and Tiffany Swasey; deceased brother, Anthony Collins; and a host of family and friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
