I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Obituary

Kevin Tyrell, Jr. was born to Kevin Shaw, Sr. and Sakeena Shaw on November 29, 1988. He was the second of two children born into this family.

Kevin received an academic scholarship to enter the Honor's program at Rice High School where he played for four years on the basketball team. His motivational drive inspired all of his teammates throughout his four year tenure. He graduated with a four year academic scholarship to attend Fairfield University. While attending the university, he served as Pledge Master of the Omega Phi Kappa Fraternity Incorporated, Beta Colony. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree and a double major in Finance & Accounting.

Kevin was an Assistant Basketball Coach at Concordia College during the 2010-2011 season. He attended George Washington University in 2011, graduating with a Master's Degree in Business Administration in 2013. Kevin and Gareth Little created "The Circle, LLC," a Sports & Entertainment Brokerage Company. In addition to serving as CEO, he continued to pursue other ventures.

Kevin is survived by: his devoted parents, Kevin Shaw, Sr. and Sakeena Shaw; his beloved sister, Ebonie and husband, Aaron Webb; grandparents, Robert and Maxine Gittens, Isaac Shaw and Betty Shaw; his precious nieces, Khloe and Skye; his beloved aunts, Lindore Shaw who preceded him in death and Monique Shaw; uncles, Omar and Jamal Gittens; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"What do you get out of being in the community?"

"I get a lot of support from my friends and family and it's a great feeling."

"What do you think is the most important thing you've learned from being in the community?"

"I've learned that I can't let anything get to me. I've learned to be strong and to take care of myself."

A portrait of a man with short dark hair and a light beard, wearing a dark suit jacket and a light-colored plaid bow tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a gentle expression. The background is a soft-focus landscape with blue and white tones, possibly a sky or a body of water.

Acknowledgement

We gratefully acknowledge the flowers you sent today. The cards you mailed along the way. The services you stopped to render. The gifts you brought with thoughts so tender. The prayers you said which played a part in easing the pain within our hearts. Each kindness shared helped us find the strength to bear the loss of one so dear. It was to us a great comfort indeed to see you in our time of need. So from our hearts, which you tried to mend, we sincerely thank you all again and again for being such truly wonderful family and friends. May you all be forever blessed.
