Sam Crawford, Organist

Eric Dunkley was born on March 12, 1958 in New York, NY to Herman and Marian Dunkley, he was one of four children.

Eric received his education from the Walton Central School District where he went on to attend Walton High School obtaining his high school diploma. After completing high school, Eric took on multiple jobs but the job he enjoyed the most was being a Porter. Eric worked for the Port Authority out of NY on and off for two years.

Eric enjoyed traveling and spent most of his time traveling down south visiting his relatives. He was very close with his family and made sure he spent as much time with them as he could. Eric also liked collecting music as much as he liked to travel.

Eric was predeceased by his brother, Kenneth Dunkley.

He leaves to mourn: his parents, Herman and Marian Dunkley; sister, Patricia Price; brother, Jerry Dunkley; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
