Obituary

Grace L. Gist Williams was born in Spartanburg, South Carolina on September 15, 1923. She departed from this life in New York, New York on July 3, 2015.

She was the daughter of Reverend Avant Gist and Fannie Moore Gist. She graduated with honors from Allen High School, Asheville, North Carolina in 1943. She graduated from Kate Bitting Reynolds School of Nursing in Winston Salem, North Carolina in 1947.

Upon graduating from nursing school, she came to New York to pursue her career. In her later years, she attended Marymount Manhattan College and obtained a B.A. Degree in Psychology in June 1977.

She was a loving, kind, and generous person. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. She was active in her building and church. She had an intense belief in God and spirituality. She had a quest and thirst for knowledge.

She is survived by: her daughter, Grace M. Williams; four brothers, Israel Gist, Romie Gist, Javant Gist and Avant Gist, Jr. She is also survived by: three sisters, Fannie Pearson, Annie Lee Gist and Laura Cates. She is furthermore survived by: niece, Michelle Farrington; and other nieces, nephews and cousins. She will be interned at Calverton Cemetery in Long Island next to her prior deceased husband, Reginald A. Williams.

A mother is someone who walks

*in front of you
when you need footsteps to follow..
behind you
when you need encouragement...
and beside you
when you need a friend.*
