Obituary

The Late Violet Sinclair-Britton

Violet Sinclair-Britton was born to the late Herbert Sinclair and Lovina Davis on July 5, 1935 in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Jamaica.

“Aunty Vie”, as she was affectionately called by all, was educated in the Allman Hill Public School System. After graduation she migrated from the rural area of St. Andrew to the capital, Kingston. She did many jobs before deciding to go into business as a fish and produce vendor after which she met and married Oscar Britton, who predeceased her. She had one son, Ishmael who also predeceased her and a adopted son who resides in Jamaica.

Aunty was the second of three children. She was also predeceased by her two siblings, sister, Daphne and brother, Fitzroy.

Aunty lived life to the fullest. Her hobbies included dominoes, card games, music, partying and going on trips.

Aunty migrated to the United States in January of 2002, where she resided in Irvington, New Jersey with her relatives. She gave her life to Christ and became a member of the New Ephesus Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member until she became ill. Aunty passed away at home, suddenly on July 4, 2015 surrounded by her loved ones.

She leaves to mourn her loss: many nieces, nephews, cousins, a grand uncle, grand nieces and nephews, great grand nieces and nephews, great, great grand nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

She will be remembered for her feisty attitude and signature hum. As she would always say, “God guidance mi love”.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

A Note of Thanks

The family of Voilet Sinclair wishes to thank you for your expression of sympathy during this time of loss.
