Obituary

Jacqueline (Jackie) Parker was born on June 6, 1951 to the late Clarence Green and Anna Mae Parker. She was born the fifth child of eight.

Jackie was educated in the New York Public School system. In 1969, she married Phillip Robinson from Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina. Together they raised their three children.

Jackie was employed with the NY Board of Education. She worked for 33 years in the food service department from 1979 to 2012.

Jackie was full of life. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She was known to many in the community as “The Mayor.” Jackie was famous for her lip smacking potato salad. Her radiating smile lit up the room and the hearts of those around her.

After a brief illness, she answered her heavenly call on July 11, 2015 at 10:08am.

Jackie was preceded in death by her three brothers, Obie, Ronald and Edward Parker. Her memories will be cherished by: her husband, Phillip Robinson; daughter, Shavette Parker-Thompson; sons, Phillip Robinson, Jr. and Eric Robinson; sisters, Shirley, Florence, Gloria and Cathy; son-in-law, Lionel H. Thompson, Jr.; grandchildren, Erika Robinson, Devin Robinson, Eric Robinson, Ashley Thompson and Kyra Thompson; great-grandchild, Bailee Robinson; uncle, Samuel Richardson; father-in-law, Jerry Simmons; mother-in-law, Helen Brown; nine brothers-in-law; five sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, grand-nieces and nephews, cousins and many dear friends.

There's A Reason

For every pain that we must bear
For every burden, every care
There is a reason.
For every grief that bows the head
For every tear drop that is shed
There is a reason.
For every hurt, for every plight
For every lonely, pain-racked night,
There is a reason.
But if we trust God, as we should
It will all turn out for our good
He knows the reason.
